

Kristen Donnelly

MSW, M.Div., PhD

Empathy Educator
Speaker & Writer
Founder of Abbey Research

"She commands the space while also maintaining an intimate connection with her audience. Her years of study and humble curiosity create the perfect container to talk about hard things."

- Tricia Brouk, Award winning director and producer

SPEAKER BIO

Dr. Kristen Donnelly is an award winning, four time TEDx speaker, empathy educator, writer, and business owner who believes that curiosity can change the world.

She and Dr. Erin Hinson form The Good Doctors of Abbey Research, who exist to help individuals and organizations as they cultivate inclusivity and engage empathetically with those around them.

She has spoken internationally - from Oxford University, to TEDxChicago, to national association conferences - and her work is routinely featured in global media publications.
